

"Stay embosomed by your freedom"

it's not as bad
as becoming like those lost
to the world

disillusioned
disgusted
defeated

or trapped
within someone else's
dream

there is enough beauty in the world unconfined by the entrapments and pains people create

try not to add
to being hurtful
hateful
fearful
unloving
or unkind

only be as unchanging
in your virtues
belong to the ways
of the rhythms of life

stay embosomed by your freedom

to the world
